Shakopee Diversity Alliance seeking cultural booths, fashion demonstrations, and volunteers.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 20, 2018

Shakopee, Minn. —

The Shakopee Diversity Alliance is proud to announce the Sixth Annual Shakopee International Festival will be held Friday, August 3, 2018 at Huber Park in Shakopee.

This year, the festival will have new and exciting entertainment and attractions for everyone. Shakopee International Festival Chair, Jorge Gomez says “We are really excited about the work being done this year by our committee. There will be new food, new entertainment, and a new cultural fashion show that will make a great evening for your family.”

The Shakopee Diversity Alliance is seeking community support for the International Festival. Community members are asked to contact the SDA if they:

- Have cultural attire representing their native country and are will to demonstrate in a Fashion Show.
- Would like to have a booth sharing cultural information or selling items appropriate for the International Festival audience.
- Would like to donate funds to the International Festival.

Please send an email to info@shakoopediversityalliance.org or call 952.380.6328 for more information.

About Shakopee Diversity Alliance:

The Shakopee Diversity Alliance (SDA) is a community-based organization made up of volunteers with different ethnic backgrounds and faiths. Most of us live in Shakopee while others work or volunteer in Shakopee. The SDA is non-partisan and not connected with the City of Shakopee nor any other organization in Shakopee. Funding for SDA activities and events is raised through its own fundraising efforts as well as donations and sponsorship from local businesses, groups and community members.
